

Leave Policy 2025

LEAVE POLICY

1. Policy Statement:

The Leave Policy is established to regulate and manage the utilization of leave benefits by employees of the company. Leave cannot be claimed as a matter of right and is subject to approval by the management. This policy aims to ensure operational continuity while promoting a healthy work-life balance for employees.

2. Types of Leave:

a. Annual Leave

- i. An Employee of a company shall be eligible for thirty (30) annual leave which shall accrue at the rate of 2.5 days per month.
- ii. An Employee on probation shall not be entitled to take annual leave during the probation period.
- iii. If the employee does not utilize the allotted 30 days of annual leave, the leave balance is capped at a maximum of 18 days, or the actual balance, whichever is lower, will be added to their annual leave credit, up to a maximum of 90 days. Any leave in excess of 90 days shall automatically lapse.
- iv. An Employee wishing to take annual leave shall notify the Employer of his/her intent to take annual leave 7 (seven) days in advance.
- v. Annual Leave does not include a public holiday or weekly rest periods that fall during the leave period.
- vi. An Employee can encash his annual leave, provided, there is a minimum balance of 45 days annual leave in his/her credit after encashment.
- vii. Any number of days accrued as annual leave to his credit on cessation of his/her service can be encashed in full.

b. Sick Leave

- i. An Employee shall be entitled to paid sick leave.
- ii. Sick leave shall accrue at the minimum rate of 5 (Five) working days per year.
- iii. An Employee taking or seeking sick leave shall notify the Employer, in advance or if that's not possible, as promptly as possible either personally or through another person, of the absence and approximate duration of absence.
- iv. An employee may take up to 2 (Two) consecutive days of sick leave at a time
- v. An employee shall not be entitled to encash unused sick leave entitlements.
- vi. Sick leave shall be granted to newly regularized or service-confirmed employees on a proportionate basis, calculated monthly from the date of confirmation of their employment status

c. Casual Leave

- i. An Employee who has worked for the Employer continuously for 6 months or more shall be entitled to paid casual leave for personal and family-related matters.
- ii. An Employee shall be eligible for 5 (Five) days of casual leave per year.
- iii. Casual Leave not availed at the end of the year shall be added to annual leave.
- iv. Casual leave shall be granted to an Employee for a short period on account of illness or urgent personal affairs and an Employee on casual leave shall be deemed to be on duty for all purposes.
- v. An employee may take up to 2 (Two) consecutive days of Casual leave at a time

Leave Policy 2025

- vi. Casual leave shall be allowed to be availed by a probationer joining service in the course of a calendar year, proportionately calculated on a monthly basis.
- vii. Casual leave shall be granted even for half a day.

d. Maternity Leave

- i. A female employee who is a regular employee shall be entitled to three (3) months of maternity leave with pay.
- ii. A female Employee shall be entitled to take a maximum of three periods of maternity leave during her entire service period with the Employer.
- iii. The Employee wishing to take maternity leave shall provide the Employer with at least 8 weeks' notice of her intent to take maternity leave. Maternity leave shall commence from the date of delivery of the child.
- iv. Maternity leave shall be granted upon the production of a medical certificate from a competent medical authority.
- v. A probationer who has to stay home due to childbirth shall do so on loss of pay and her probation period shall be deferred by the same period as her maternity leave.
- vi. On return from maternity leave, the Employee will be placed in the same or materially similar position held by her before the maternity leave. Her rate of pay should not in any case be less than the one she received before leaving for maternity leave.

e. Leave for Pregnancy-related Illness or Termination

- i. If an Employee suffers a miscarriage, she shall be entitled to two two-week periods of maternity leave and unpaid leave for as long as a certified medical practitioner certifies it to be necessary

f. Paternity Leave

- i. A male Employee who is a regular employee whose lawful wife gives birth shall be entitled to 10 days of paternity leave.
- ii. A male Employee shall be entitled to a maximum of three periods of paternity during his entire service period.
- iii. Unless agreed otherwise, the Employee shall take his paternity leave within 2 weeks of the birth of his child.
- iv. A probationer who has to stay home due to the birth of his child shall do so on loss of pay and his probation period shall be deferred by the same time as his paternity leave.

g. Medical Leave

- i. An employee who is certified by a competent medical authority as being incapable of performing his/her duties due to illness or injury may be granted medical leave upon submission of a valid medical certificate, as follows:
 - i. If the medical leave is due to a workplace accident or injury: The employee may be entitled to gross pay for a maximum of 2 months, followed by basic pay for an additional 4 months.
 - ii. If the medical leave is due to reasons not related to a workplace accident or injury: The employee may be entitled to gross pay for a maximum of 2 months, followed by basic pay for an additional 1 month.

Leave Policy 2025

- ii. An Employee who has been granted more than 3 months of medical leave may be required to produce a medical certificate of fitness to perform his duties.

h. Bereavement Leave

- i. In the event of the death of a family member or dependent of an Employee, the Employee shall be granted 21 days bereavement leave, including weekends and holidays, for each incident and the leave shall be calculated from the day of the incident.

i. Public Holidays

- i. An Employee is entitled to a minimum of 9 days of public holidays in a year, inclusive of the birth anniversary of His Majesty the King and the National Day or more in accordance with the public holiday notification issued by the Management.

j. Unpaid Leave

An employee may be granted unpaid leave entirely at the discretion of the employer. If the services of an employee are not required, the management reserves the right to place the employee on compulsory unpaid leave

3. Leave Approving Authority

a) Medical Leave

Period	Authority
Up to 1 month	MD/CEO/Management Committee
Beyond 1 month	Chairman/Board

b) Any other Leave

SN	Functional Role	Approval Authority
1	Activity Support, Activity Owner,	Process Lead, Process Head, Functional Head, DOA
2	Task Incharge, Process Lead	Process Head, DOA
3	Process Head, Functional Lead	Functional Head, DOA
4	Functional Head, Operation Lead	Operation Head, DOA
5	Operation Head	Business Head/DOA
6	Business Head/DOA	Corporate Office

4. Requesting Leave:

Employees must request leave in advance through the designated leave management system or by informing their leave approving authority. Requests should include the type of leave, dates requested, and any relevant documentation (e.g., medical certificates). The competent authority will review leave requests and approve them based on operational needs and leave balance availability.

5. Leave Recordkeeping:

Accurate records of employee leave balances, accruals, and usage will be maintained by the HR department. Employees are responsible for reviewing their leave balances regularly and reporting any discrepancies to HR.

Leave Policy 2025

6. Policy Compliance:

All employees are required to comply with the provisions outlined in this policy. Any misuse or abuse of leave benefits may result in disciplinary action.

7. Definition

For this Policy, unless the context indicates otherwise, a word, phrase, or acronym is defined as follows:

"Family" means the Employee's legal spouse and legitimate children.

"Dependent" means parents.

Leave Policy 2025

8. Leave Form

TASHI GROUP
LEAVE REQUEST AND APPROVAL FORM

To:

Date:.....

Name of the applicant:

Substitute of the applicant:

Kindly grant me leave as follows:

Sl. No	Type of Leave	Select to Avail (√)	Duration			Remarks
			Start Date	End Date	Total (days)
1	(Mention the leave type)

 Reasons for availing leave:

Signature of Applicant

* Until today, the (date) of (month), (year), the applicant has..... days of earned leave, and days of casual leave remaining.

☐ Recommended ☐ Not Recommended

Signature of Supervisor/Manager

Approved by:
Signature of HOD/DOA

CC: HR Department